Adult Group Bookings and Celebrations

Unlike most yurt campsites we don't ban single sex groups including hens and stags..... but we are primarily a family site and are only able to accommodate those that want to enjoy what we have to offer ie a quiet rural location with lovely walks and outdoor activities like canoeing and mountain biking.

Because any noise rises up the valley we don't allow any amplified music or loud partying as this would disturb both our neighbours and other guests. We really do enforce this (and have once had to ask a whole group to leave after one night). We hope this doesn't sound too off putting – we've had lots of really lovely adult groups -- but this year, on several occasions we had to ask groups to quieten down and we really don't want to have to act like school prefects!

If you still feel our site is suitable for you, and we hope you do, then we would ask you to confirm you agree to our ethos by signing and returning this form (either by snail mail or by scanning/e.mail (sorry, we don't' have a fax machine).
